RECOMMENDATIONS

PUBLIC RECEPTION

- Welcome every newcomer with a clear message: explain their voting rights and motivate them to register immediately.
- Boost participation: encourage registration for both municipal and European elections to strengthen civic engagement.
- Make registration easy: extend municipal office hours before deadlines so no one misses their chance.
- Communicate effectively: distribute simple, engaging, and multilingual materials tailored for new residents

ONLINE PRESENCE

- Create a dedicated online space: provide clear information on the municipal website with a direct link to MyGuichet.lu.
- Leverage social media: share fun, engaging, and multilingual messages across the commune's channels.
- Mobilize local networks: use your own associations and community groups to spread the word and reach specific audiences.

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

- Include voting information in municipal events - especially those designed for newcomers.
- Celebrate National Registration Day: turn it into a festive and informative community event.
- Partner with associations and community leaders to act as multipliers and spread the message.
- Facilitate dialogue: organize meetings between citizens, candidates, and political parties.
- Host interactive events: co-organize café-debates or round tables with local associations on voting rights.
- Inspire participation: showcase stories of engaged residents to motivate others to get involved.

Sustained and long-term commitment

- Reach out personally: send customized letters in multiple languages to those not yet registered. Help the local council identify the key languages in your municipality.
- Plan for impact: develop an annual awareness and follow-up strategy with a clear calendar of regular actions.
- Build strong partnerships: work with associations and community leaders to ensure the message is continuously shared.
